

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Sister Lisa D. Gambacorto, entered the order of the Sisters of Mercy on August 30, 1980, and

WHEREAS, Sister Lisa received her BA from Georgian Court College, a MA from Seton Hall University, and an EDS from Seton Hall University, and

WHEREAS, Sister Lisa has taught at Saint Joseph Elementary School in Trenton and the Mount Saint Mary Academy in Watchung; served as Chair of the History Department at Mount Saint Mary Academy, served as a Counselor at the Bloomfield Counseling Center, and has served as the Directress of Mount Saint Mary Academy since the year 2000, and

WHEREAS, as a faculty member of Mount Saint Mary Academy, Sister Lisa founded the Campus Ministry program in 1988 and the Student Assistance Program in 1990, as well as being a visionary for the future of the school, using her intelligence, dedication, skills, and energy to make positive changes for the Mount Saint Mary Academy community, for the present and for the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ALBERT S. ELLIS, Mayor of the Borough of Watchung, proclaim Saturday, October 29, 2005 as in the Borough of Watchung and congratulate her on her Silver Jubilee Year.

SISTER LISA DAY

Albert S. Ellis, Mayor

Date: October 27, 2005